

UHPFRC 2024

Menton (French Riviera) Palais de l'Europe, October 21-23, 2024

We invite you to come and present your know-how or expertise to the international specialist participants at the Ultra-High Performance Fiber Reinforced Concrete conference (UHPFRC 2024) during this new edition dedicated to this field.

More than 100 communications will be presented in the magnificent and historical building of the Palais de l'Europe (former casino built in 1908).

At the heart of this site, your booth will be on the France Forum in the middle of the catering and break areas for conference participants.
